

Green Development: Good for Water and the Bottom Line

February 24-26, 2008 • Sheraton Music City Hotel • Nashville, Tennessee

Mark your calendar now for a cutting edge conference focusing on green development and its contribution to the efficiency and quality of our water. The goal of this conference is to inform city/county officials as to the benefits of green development and ways to encourage green building in their local areas, as well as to promote dialogue and exchange among developers, architects, contractors, and state and local officials.

Register now for this important event by visiting the conference website, where you will also find information on hotel housing and a preliminary conference schedule. www.outreach.utk.edu/GreenDevelopment.

For registration assistance or questions, please call UT Conferences at (865) 974-0280.

This conference is largely funded by a grant from the U.S. EPA Office of Water and is co-sponsored by the Kentucky Dept. for Environmental Protection and the Tennessee Dept. of Environment and Conservation.
